Many Inquiries Come From Australia, New Zealand And Ceylon

Secretary Wood has prepared the following weekly report on the work people," is the description which some discerning writer has fitted to "Sol-diers of Fortune," the play which is to be the offering of the Lumley com-pany the latter half of this week, which he will submit at the meeting of that body this afternoon:

Honolulu, June 25, 1908. Chairman and Members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. lentlemen:

By the last mail an additional batch Americans.
"Soldiers of Fortune" tells a fascin of letters was received from different libraries on the mainland acknowledging copies of our pamphlet "Agricul-ture in Hawaii," A number of rfe-quests for our news service also came Robert Clay (Richard Buhler), a young American mining engineer, for to hand.

By the Marama, several inquirles from probable visitors were received from different points in New Zealand and Australia, also from Colombo, Ceylon. The Galle Face and Oriental hotels of Colombo continue to give our folders a prominent place in the advertising matter they distribute among their guests.

The role of Clay, originally played by Mr. Edison, the well known star will be portrayed by Richard Buhler who should find the role a most ac-ceptable one and Frank E. Montgom-ery will be seen as Captain Stuart. Miss Thornton will play Hope Lang By the last steamer for the North, a full line of folders was sent to Mr. E. J. Coyle, assistant general passenger sgent of the Canadian Pacific railway, for distribution throughout the ham, the leading female role.

The piece will be put on for a three nights run, Thursday, Friday and Sat-Northwest.
